

Approval Of Bill Is Asked

Would Make It Illegal To Require Joining Union On Defense Jobs

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(P)—Senator Reed (R-Kas) told the Senate today that workers on war and defense projects had been forced to pay "at least $30,000-$40,000" in fees to labor unions.

The Kansas Republican senator said his estimate was based upon personal investigations of union charges on a defense project near his home city of Parsons, Kas., as he urged congressional approval of his bill which would make it illegal to require union membership for a job on any project financed with federal funds.

Reed urged a senate judiciary subcommittee to make a complete investigation of what he termed "scandals" and "racketeering elements" in unions on various defense projects under the army engineer corps.

High Initiation Fees
The senator said that on the ordinance project near his home city that common laborers had been forced to pay a $12 initiation fee and $2 monthly dues to a local of the International Hod Carriers union of the American Federation of Labor.

He said in a lengthy prepared speech that this union "is not only notorious but is obnoxious and offensive and smells to high heaven."

Reed told the senate that this single project netted unions about $216,000 in fees of various kinds "based on my personal investigation." He said a similar computation on all projects under the army engineer corps indicated that a widespread "closed shop" program for AFL construction trade unions had cost workers $30,370,903.

The senator said this was based on an initiation fee of $25 for common laborers and truck drivers, $50 for carpenters, and $100 for electricians and plumbers.

Does Not Know Amount
"I do not know how much was actually collected," the senator said. "Nobody knows but the labor union officers, and they do not tell anyone, not even the members of their unions. They do not have to report to anyone and the only way to disclose the exact amount would be through a thorough and exhaustive investigation . . ."

Reed said that his investigation—made while he was resting under doctor's orders—disclosed "waste, extravagance, slow-downs, overtime and inefficiency were rife in virtually all plant construction."

Those called For Session

The president has asked that these persons sit in on the first council meetings:

Dr. Herbert V. Evatt Australian minister for external affairs; Walter Nash, New Zealand minister to the United States; Dr. Alexander Loudon, The Netherlands minister; Hume Wragg, counselor of the Canadian legation; Dr. T. V. Soong, Chinese foreign minister, and Lord Halifax, the British ambassador.

"Honest, courageous leadership would demand a house cleaning," he continued. "Unfortunately, the American Federation of Labor does not now possess such leadership."

The senator said he had been a long-time friend of organized labor but was willing "to impose restrictions upon some labor practices" because he regarded this in the "general public interest."

Halt Manufacture Of Appliances

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(P)—Manufacture of a long list of household electrical appliances—including toasters, waffle irons, flat irons, roasters, grills, percolators, cigarette lighters and dry shavers—was ordered today by the government to be halted completely on May 31, except on orders having a high military priority rating.

Did you ever notice how little delays multiply? Somebody, a few minutes late, holds up somebody else an hour, and that hour's delay makes a day's difference somewhere else, and the day becomes a week, and the week may make the difference of a month. Translate this into war production and delivery and you have "too little, too late."

The complaints come from 96-year-old Ira Storme, commander of the Utah GAR. He is the only member.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON AND
ROBERT S. ALLEN

Sea Otter, revolutionary cargo ship, gets the run-around; built under direction of Joe Powell, had unusual launching; Powell is called before the senate's naval committee; He was involved in shipbuilding deal during the first war.

(The Brass Ring, good for a free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round — and in this case a bumpy one — goes to Joseph W. Powell, assistant to Secretary of the Navy Knox.)

WASHINGTON, March 30 — Shortly after Frank Knox because Secretary of the Navy, he brought to Washington Joseph W. Powell, former vice president of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company.

Since then Mr. Powell has been severely criticized by the supreme court and put on the grill before the naval affairs committee in connection with the construction of the Sea Otter.

And last week the president of the United States, after admitting that the Sea Otter had not been given a fair trial, icily remarked to Senators Gillette and Brewster of Iowa and Brewster of Maine: "Apparently the Secretary of the Navy has lots of confidence in the judgment of Mr. Powell."

Powell's Record

To get the background, you have to begin with the last war when Powell in 1917 was vice president of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding company and when the government, desperately in need of ships, asked Bethlehem to build them.

Powell at that time made a bid of $119,750,000 on troop ships and tankers which the U. S. Shipping board protested as "arbitrary and upon which his company subsequently made a profit of $24,000,000 or 22 per cent, with as Justice Frankfurter expressed it, "absolutely no risk of loss."

Justice Frankfurter also took notice of Powell's friendship with Charles Piez, manager of the U. S. fleet corporation.

"Relations between Powell and Piez were very close," Justice Frankfurter said. "Piez, as Powell knew, had had no shipbuilding experience whatsoever, had implicit confidence in Powell's assistance with respect to matters of shipbuilding."

The lush cost plus contract which Powell negotiated for Bethlehem in 1917 subsequently was challenged by the justice department and after years of litigation was decided this year by the U. S. supreme court.

Long before the supreme court ruled, however, Frank Knox had ample means of checking up on Joe Powell. For a lower court compared Powell's shipbuilding deal with "daylight robbery," and referring to him, mentioned "the famous Rob Roy distinction who admitted he was a robber but proudly proclaimed he was no thief."

Despite all this, however, the Secretary of the Navy appointed Joe Powell to the important job of his assistant.

Sea Otter Mystery

Since then, the senate naval affairs committee has hauled Joe Powell before it, with some highly interesting results in connection with the Sea Otter.

The Sea Otter is the name given to a new transport ship originated by Commander Hamilton Bryan. It is small, low in the water so it will not be a good submarine target, and is powered by 16 automobile engines. The propeller is in the center of the ship so that the steel plates around the stern don't have to be of specially shaped steel. And the auto engines can be produced on the assembly line in no time.

Thus the ship is speedy of construction and speedy afloat.

However, those around the Secretary of the Navy didn't want to build the ship — until finally the president himself intervened. Then she was placed under the somewhat reluctant Mr. Powell and constructed at Orange, Texas, under rather unusual conditions.

For some strange reason, she was given no inspection whatsoever, by naval inspectors during

Bobo-Franklin Fight Tonight

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 30—(P)—Harry Bobo, 208-pound Sunday school teacher with dynamite in both fists, gets the biggest chance of his three-year-old pro boxing career here tonight in a 10-round go with dangerous Lem Franklin, 202, of Cleveland.

Franklin is the former bellhop who was ascending the heavyweight ladder at a fearsome pace until Bob Pastor stopped him in eight rounds a few weeks ago. Lem flattened Tony Musto and Abe Simon in less time than champion Joe Louis.

Bobo, although he has a good record, is practically an unknown along Bashers' boulevard.

Should Bobo put Franklin away, however, he'll be right up in there. Jimmy Johnston, manager of Pastor and Simon, is expected at the ringside tonight with the idea of negotiating for a Pastor-Bobo match here later this spring if Hugh Harry wins.

The odds are about even. Pittsburgh fans like the bout between the dusky mastodons so well that reserved seats are sold out.

Face Saver

WASHINGTON, March 30—(P)—Washington dug out today from its heaviest March snowfall of record to count thousands of its trees broken or felled and many power lines disrupted by the unusual weather but no serious accidents were reported.

The snow fell Saturday night and most of yesterday, reaching a general depth of 15 to 18 inches though the weather bureau officially listed the depth as eight inches in downtown sectors. Nearly 3,000 men were put into service by the city and transit companies clearing streets and this morning traffic moved on principal thoroughfares about as normal after being paralyzed most of yesterday.

The storm recalled that of January, 1922, when a 26-inch snowfall caused the collapse of the Knickerbocker theatre roof with the death of more than 100 men, women and children in the audience.

Salt-water gnats, smallest of flying insects, once choked the carburetors of a bombing plane and forced it to land.

I found the way to amazing new pep... vitality...
better looks!

A truly marvelous change can be brought about by overcoming miserable digestive complaints, under-weight, sluggishness, loss of appetite—all by two important steps—

• Restore vital digestive juices in the stomach... energize your body with rich, red blood. Here's how!

If you are one of those unfortunate who have worked hard, eaten poorly, failed to eat the proper foods, have been vexed by digestive worries or have suffered with colds, the flu, or other ills... yet have no organic trouble or focal infection... and your red blood cells have become red and vital... it is time to take S.S.S. Tonic. It is especially designed to build up your blood strength when deficient... to revive and stimulate those stomach nerves which digest the food which your body can make proper use of it in removing the worn out tissue. These two important results enable you to enjoy the food you do eat... to make use of it as Nature intended. Thus you may get new vitality... pep... become more attractive!

Serial Story . . .

Mexican Masquerade

by Cecil Carnes

NEA Service Inc.

THE STORY: Allan Steele, posing as magazine photographer, seeks Dr. Sergeant and daughter, on U. S. mission in Mexico's Peninsula. While there he appears also news of Harry Bishop, addendum by mysterious injection while on same mission. Bishop, found reported only "The yellow devils!" Allan, after meeting with enigmatic Col. Escobar of Royal Guard, checks in at Inn of Thousand Delights, quizzes its proprietor, Sun Su, a Chinese working with U. S.

BEAUTIFUL—AND EVIL?

CHAPTER V
"THE yellow devils!" Sun Su repeated slowly. "And that was all Mr. Bishop could remember?"

Allan nodded.

The Chinese lifted one broad hand and brought it down softly on the desk in the gesture of a man suddenly struck by an idea.

"That gives me a thought, senior! I will tell it to you, but if you should repeat it—say, to the wrong person—it would be my death warrant. Promise me, senior, your utmost discretion!"

"I promise, Sun Su," breathed Allan, impressed by the proprietor's manner. "Shoot!"

"There is something strange going on, senior, not far from here. Ten miles south there is a little group of islands, small and large. They lie much nearer the mainland. Only a narrow strip of water separates them from this coast, so a man lying concealed on any nearby hilltop can get quite a good view, even with the naked eye, of what is happening on the biggest island."

"Well," prompted Allan impatiently as Sun Su paused, "what is happening there?"

"Six months ago, the islands were leased to a Japanese fishing company. A concern of considerable financial backing, clearly, for they have a large number of fishermen employed and have erected a modern cannery which is wonderfully equipped. The project has been a great success, judging from the monthly shiploads of canned fish that go to Japan—and sometimes to my country, where no doubt it is served to the Japanese army of occupation."

A GAIN the Chinese broke off, as if marshaling his facts in order. After the opening sentence, Allan had to force himself to listen with due attention. The word "Japanese" had sent his thoughts flying to a sick man and his one reiterated phrase. "The yellow devils! The yellow devils!" Was that the answer?

"How did you learn all this, Officer?"

Sun Su? I don't imagine they advertise their business much around here."

"Decidedly not. Nor did I learn it myself, for my big body does not permit me to move abroad in this climate. But I have friends among the native fishermen, most of them Peninsula Indians who are jealous of a rival so powerful. They sometimes watch the cannery, though they have been warned they'll be severely beaten if they are caught spying."

"That's interesting. And the company employs?"

"All Japanese. They are never permitted to go far from the islands. However, there are two persons connected with the company who come and go as they please. They are Eurasians. One is a remarkably beautiful woman of about 30—the most beautiful woman I've ever seen. She lives at the cannery, but she sometimes makes trips to Mexico City and usually spends a few days, on her way, at this modest inn."

Again the Chinese hesitated before adding deliberately: "I believe, senior, she is just as evil as she is beautiful."

"Indeed! And the second privileged person?"

"The man with whom I was talking when you came in. His name is Poona Gungas. He acts as servant, or bodyguard, for the woman."

"I see. And you believe this fish cannery may be just a blind for some more nefarious racket?"

Sun Su inclined his head affirmatively.

"Mmph. Mexico is a neutral country and supposedly our friend. If anything wrong is going on, the authorities should spot it and tip off. Your Colonel Escobar, for instance; wouldn't he be apt to know all about a foreign fishing outfit in his district?"

"I fear Colonel Escobar has been led far from the path of duty," said Sun Su, shaking his head. "She is indeed very lovely!"

"So that's it, eh? The lady who is very beautiful and very evil seduces the young officer! What does she get out of it?"

Sun Su spread his hands. "To know that, senior, might be to know all. I can only tell you the pair are thick as—how do you say it in English?—thick as thieves, yes? Once he accompanied her on a trip to the capital; they ride and swim together; whenever the lady stays here, the colonel is a regular visitor."

It got past. She smiled bewitchingly.

Mind Your Manners

1. When a funeral is held at home do women members of the family wear hats, just as they would if the funeral were in a church?

2. Should women who attend a home funeral keep their wraps on?

3. Is there always music at a home funeral?

New Officers For County Council PTA

Miss Reba Gum Gave Talk On Health Services

Miss Reba Gum, county health nurse, told of health services which had been available for the rural children in the county this year, at the meeting of the Pettis county council of Parent-Teacher organizations held on Tuesday at the Fifth Street Methodist church. Material for smallpox and diphtheria inoculations have been furnished in a number of cases. Dental inspection for children in the first four grades in five of the town areas outside of Sedalia has been conducted. As a result of follow up of vision tests fifteen children have been fitted with glasses. Miss Gum urged the use of the vision test chart periodically in all of the schools.

Election of Officers

The following officers and committee chairmen were selected by the council for the next school year: Mrs. Paul Zink, president; Miss Mamie McCormick, first vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. S. G. Monsess, second vice-president and publicity chairman; Mrs. Albert Runge, secretary; Mrs. A. C. Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Milford Lewis, Founders' chairman; Mrs. R. R. Higgins, recreation; Mrs. E. H. Gregory, music; D. W. Scotten, men's activities; Mrs. P. R. Burford, Congress publication; Mrs. M. E. Green, Standard of Excellence. Three members at large of the executive committee are: Mesdames B. M. Crago and Marshall Hall, Sr., and Mr. L. B. Fall.

Activities Reported

As Mrs. Paul Zink, the council president, conducted roll call of the local units represented at the meeting a number of worthwhile activities were reported. Successful study groups were reported by the groups which were working toward the standard of excellence goal.

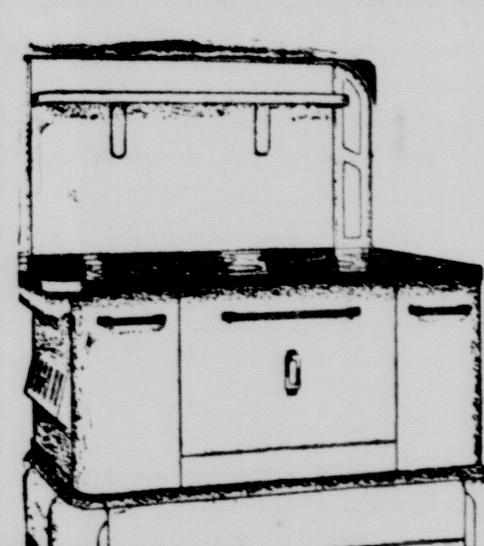

Special mention was made of the study group of the Pleasant Green unit which was given recognition in a recent issue of the Missouri Parent-Teacher, the bulletin of the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. Marshall Hall, Sr. is the local unit president. While money making is not one of the primary objectives of congress units, during the past year much material aid has been given to the hot lunch projects which have been sponsored by local units. In addition to participation of local members in unit programs several outstanding speakers have been generous in giving their time to appear on programs as well as different music groups and service organizations. Participation in Red Cross work was reported as well as a first aid class in the Smeiser unit.

Reports on Congress

Mrs. M. E. Green, Sedalia District president, gave a brief report of tentative plans for the state convention of the Missouri Congress of Parent Teachers to be held in Sedalia in October. Mrs. S. G. Monsess, president of the

No. 4—What About the Pedestrian

PLACE a circle around the letter "T" if a statement is true and around the letter "F" if a statement is false. When finished, turn upside down to read correct answers at bottom of this test. Your score is the number right minus the number wrong. How good are you?

1. At night a pedestrian can be more easily seen on a concrete road surface than on an asphalt road surface. T F
2. It is advisable for the pedestrian to keep to the right on crowded cross-walk crossings. T F
3. A pedestrian who has the right of way on a cross-walk in the daytime does not have it after dark because the driver cannot see him very well. T F
4. The intelligent driver takes for granted that all pedestrians on rural roads will walk facing oncoming traffic. T F
5. Since there is greater congestion of traffic at intersections, it is safer for pedestrians to cross between rather than at intersections. T F
6. The safe driver does not have to know sound pedestrian practices. T F
7. If an adult pedestrian lacks mature judgment, the driver of a car has no responsibility toward him. T F
8. It is safe for a pedestrian to step into the street from between parked cars if he doesn't see any other cars approaching. T F
9. It is a foolish driving practice to assume that every child playing on or near the street may suddenly dart in front of your car. T F
10. The man on foot often makes the mistake of believing that he can be seen by the driver from a far greater distance than is actually possible. T F
11. Whether a pedestrian on a highway wears light clothing or dark clothing at night has no bearing on the distance at which he can be seen. T F
12. It is wise for the man on foot to look first to the left then to the right before crossing two-way streets. T F
13. At intersections unprotected by traffic lights, it is not wise for a pedestrian to follow a clockwise path in reaching a diagonal destination. T F
14. It is definitely established that adults can learn new habits and attitudes. T F
15. When sidewalks are crowded, it is entirely safe to walk short distances in the roadway as long as one faces oncoming traffic. T F

Correct answers: 1. T 2. T 3. F 4. T 5. F 6. T 7. F 8. F 9. F 10. T 11. F 12. T 13. F 14. T 15. F. Your score is the number of right minus the number wrong. In general, scores of 13 or ordinary drivers; 12, average adults; 11, ordinary experts; 10, drivers who have had special training; 9, drivers who have had special training and are members of the National Safety Council; 8, drivers who have had special training and are members of the National Safety Council and are members of the National Safety Council.

Striped College unit, brought an unusually fine scrap book from their group. Pettis county should have a good display of scrap books from the rural units at the state convention.

Mrs. P. R. Burford conducted a school of instruction for officers at the afternoon session. During the round table discussion many of those present contributed information based on their own experiences.

A contributed lunch was served at the noon hour by assisting hostess units.

ALUTIANS—DAGGER AT JAPAN

ARMED like a dagger at the heart of Japan is this chain of rocky, volcanic, treeless, fog-cloaked islands—America's Aleutians. War has swept into fishing and whaling inlets here as U. S. builds secret bases for both defense and attack. Although Tokyo is out of bomber range from Attu, farthest Aleutian, Japan's northern Kurile islands are well within reach.

From new, hidden bases in the sub-Arctic Aleutian Islands, the U. S. may launch air and sea assaults on the islands of the enemy when spring breezes thin the fog in the north Pacific. Shuttle air attacks would be possible with use of Russian bases at Vladivostok and Kamchatka for refueling. But if Japan blunts the dagger by striking first, these same Aleutians might be stepping stones for enemy attack on Alaska.

When constipation brings on discomfort after meals, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, and bad breath, you know it is probably "crying the blues" because the stomach doesn't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease.

many Doctors have given pepsin preparations to their patients to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. Inset on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepin. See how up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good Syrup Pepin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finish cleaning up the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Take Dr. Caldwell's
